Veterans Day

In observance of Veterans Day, Federal Reserve Banks and many of the nation’s banking institutions will be closed on Thursday, November 11, 2021. However, the NYSE®, NASDAQ®, and other U.S. stock exchanges will be open for trading. Futures and forex trading will follow normal hours on November 11.

Mutual Funds:
There may be mutual funds that do not trade on Veterans Day, meaning no buys, sells, or exchanges. For information on a particular fund, please call Client Services at 800-669-3900.

TD Ameritrade Hours of Operation:
TD Ameritrade Client Services and branch offices will follow normal hours of operation on Thursday, November 11, but certain transactions and account activities will be affected.

Deposits and Withdrawals:
As a result of the Federal Reserve Bank closures, the TD Ameritrade Payment Services team will not be processing any of the following transactions on Thursday, November 11:

- Incoming and outgoing wire transfers
- Incoming and outgoing electronic funding (ACH)
- Check deposits
- Stop payment requests
- Returned checks
- Check writing
- Bill pay

Payment Services will be processing outgoing check requests, although there may be a delay in delivery due to U.S. Postal Service closure in observance of the holiday.

Trade Settlement:
Veterans Day is not a settlement date because it is a bank holiday. Mutual fund trades made on November 10 will settle one business day later than usual. Stock trades made on November 9 and 10 will settle one business day later than usual.
